DRESSED AS GIRL
Plunder—Mostly Women's Finery—Stored in Attic Over Garage.

Officer Leo Lennartz took the arm of a beautiful girl in a white dress walking along Sherman avenue, near Milton. It was the arm of a woman dressed in perfect mode and the only conspicuous point was the largeness of the hands and stride when walking. The skirt was of fluted silk, a sweater over a pretty waist was open at the neck. The face was perfectly rounded and a green hat, under which showed hair of flapper perfection, completed the costume. But the hat became a little awry.

MEREDITH NOW SEEN AS HOPE FOR COMPROMISE

SUB-COMMITTEE IS HARD AT WORK ON PARTY PLATFORM NIGHT OF ORATORY CENTERS ON PROHIBITION AND LEAGUE.

WOMEN ON HAND
Law Enforcement One of Principles Urged; Filipino Freedom Asked.

New York.—Actual drafting of the party's declaration of principles today was in the hands of a sub-committee appointed early this morning after the platform committee of the democratic national convention had completed a lengthy hearing on numerous proposals.

Declarations on foreign relations, farm relief, prohibition and the Ku Klux Klan formed the most difficult problems confronting the sub-committee which was called to begin its labors at 10 a. m. under the chairmanship of Homer S. Cummings of Connecticut, who also heads the full committee.

Members of the drafting committee which is made up of William Jennings Bryan, Florida; William H. Taft, Indiana; William A. Ayers, Kansas; Senator David L. Walsh, Massachusetts; former Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock, Nebraska; Senator Key Pittman, Nevada; Newton D. Baker, Ohio; Senator Robert L. Owen, Oklahoma; Representative Philip J. Garrett, Tennessee; were optimistic but not inclined, before they went into executive session, to make definite predictions as to when they would finish their task.

The hearing of the full committee, which was begun shortly after adjournment of the opening session of the convention Tuesday afternoon, continued until after 1 o'clock this morning. The chief topics of the oratory centered about the league of nations and prohibition.

A large number of other subjects were discussed, however, by spokesmen for various organizations and groups, and the committee was warned by Representative Harry B. Hawes, of Missouri, and Julius A. Fox, of New York, that the fight for a specific denunciation of the Ku Klux Klan would be carried to the convention floor if the name of the order should be left out of the "bill of rights" plank by the platform drafters.

IOWA MAN IN BRIGHT LIGHT NOW

E. T. MEREDITH

New York.—E. T. Meredith looms as the compromise candidate for president. He has kept in the background but way back during the Cleveland convention one heard now and then, "Watch Meredith!" Iowa has 19 delegates for McAdoo.

Under the unit rule they would vote the solid delegation for the non-in-law candidate. But now with the delegation trying to break from McAdoo to Meredith, it is charged that this is in the interest of Al Smith. The Iowa man indignantly denies this. They claim that Meredith is their own favorite son.

Meredith is strong in Iowa. He has never been an office seeker. He is an agricultural editor and publisher of a successful farm paper. He made a good record as secretary of agriculture and it is claimed by his backers that he would carry the farm vote in the middle west. With Smith out of the race and McAdoo defeated, all the candidates who have been standing alone fighting both, it is believed that instead of going to candidates who have opposed them, both Smith and McAdoo would prefer to support Meredith against the present leaders.

The bitterness of the fight is intensified each hour. Harry B. Hawes, congressman from St. Louis, in his speech before the resolutions committee against the Klan and for a plank denouncing the Ku Klux in no uncertain terms, predicted that unless an anti-klan plank, at least in the form of a resolution, was inserted in the party platform, Missouri would go republican in November by 200,000 votes.

"Today we have a body of ruthless agents who profess to protect the Catholic, the Jew, and the foreign born," he said. "The democrats must either protect them or dodge the issue."

ALL NIGHT LONG COMMITTEES WORK TO FIX REPORTS
TWO-THIRDS RULE LET ALONE AND WILL BE IN FORCE.

WALSH SELECTED
Contests Before Credentials Committee to Go to the Floor.

New York.—Still confused by the multiplicity of presidential candidates but with its platform advanced to the sub-committee drafting stage, the democratic national convention went into its second day to perfect organization, hear another keynote address and take up committee reports.

Senator Walsh, Montana, the dominant figure in the last leading investigation was today's keynote in the role of permanent chairman, succeeding Senator Harrison of Mississippi who was temporary chairman (Continued on Page 5)

Waterbury, Conn., police and the Thomas, the boys were arrested by detective squads who surrounded a spot designated in a letter to Mr. Franks.

Elkhorn.—After maintaining a search since Saturday, police aid has been made by the families of Mrs. Roy Mahoney, 24, and George Sweet, 26, in finding the pair.

50 Oil Companies Are Attacked in Anti-Trust Action

Battle Develops on Bitter Issue During Speeches

Madison Square Garden, New York.—Amid scenes almost without parallel in party history the democratic convention today began its grapple with the two great issues before it—the nomination of a presidential candidate and determination of the party's attitude toward the Ku Klux Klan. Scarcely had the nominating speeches for president begun when the vast hall was thrown into chaos by a prolonged demonstration provoked by a reference to the positive stand against the Klan taken by Senator Underwood of Alabama. Mention of the name of the order fell into the convention like a bomb. One after another, the delegates were lifted and carried in a parade around the hall, together with American flags snatched from the wall decorations, while the roof of the historic old garden rattled with a roar of cheering and the singing of "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner."

In two or three of the states, where sentiment is divided on the Klan, the delegates' flights and a delegates who wanted to take the state standard into the parade were opposed by others who sought to keep them out. The delegates, however, sat silent, apparently unanimous in their disapproval of the whole and-then demonstration.

The convention today perfected its organization, gave a rousing reception to its permanent chairman, Senator Walsh of Montana, and then moved swiftly along to the first stage of its fight over the presidential nomination.

Altogether, standing at the head of the roll call, presented Senator Underwood as the first of those to be placed formally before the delegates for the presidency.

SEN. WALSH ATTACKS COOLIDGE AND PARTY
Madison Square Garden, New York.—Senator Thomas J. Walsh, formerly of two rivers, later of South Dakota, today opened the convention before the 13,000 delegates and visitors to the democratic national convention and made the address as permanent chairman. It was not a keening speech of the Harrison type, but an arraignment of republicans, especially in the oil cases.

"The American people will be on trial before the world in the coming presidential campaign. The issue," he asserted, "will be whether they will continue in power the party now in control, or whether they will, by handing the reins to the radicals which have been disclosed in senate investigations, admit the accusation."

Senator Walsh said, "that the American people are indifferent to the corrupting influence of corruption in office, high or low. But we shall see. They are on trial."

"If, notwithstanding what has transpired, the party now in power in the nation is continued in control by the choice of the people of the United States, it is a disgrace, and a judgment must be passed upon them by the world."

"They enjoy the distinction of having erected and maintained a government whose officers are as free from suspicion of venality as those of any other nation."

Captions That Capture

Thanks to the captions that head the different groups of opportunities in the Gazette A-B-C Classified Sections, you don't have to read the whole section to find some specific opportunity.

These captions will capture your attention immediately—and enable you to capture your own little opportunity instantly.

But, as the saying goes, "We haven't said the half of it yet."

The captions which designate the main groups are amplified by sub-captions which in turn include a large number of smaller captions known as index terms.

As soon as you notice that captions, sub-captions and index terms are all alphabetically arranged in numerical classifications—you will realize the pains we have gone to in order to assure the reader convenience.

If the A-B-C Classified Section isn't worth your daily attention—nothing is!
